Community Services Block Grant

Combatting the Causes of Poverty

Erie, PA

The Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) is a federally-funded program that helps low-income families and individuals achieve self-sufficiency. The funding supports local services to address the root causes of poverty.

CSBG funds are allocated to certified Community Action Agencies (CAAs) or local government units in every Pennsylvania county, based on an entitlement formula. These organizations aim to increase community engagement and partnerships to overcome barriers that prevent individuals from achieving self-sufficiency.

CAAs play a vital role in fighting poverty at the local level. They set priorities based on three-year Community Needs Assessments and uses a continuous improvement performance management system to deploy resources effectively. The unique board structure of CAAs fosters community-building efforts by including equal representation from individuals experiencing poverty, local elected officials, and community advocates and service organizations.

Who's Eligible?

Pennsylvania residents with an income 200% or below the Federal Poverty Guidelines set by the Federal Office of Management and Budget are eligible to receive direct services from agencies funded through the Community Services Block Grant (CSBG).
